

STEIGER DYNAMICS Completes the Living Room Gaming Experience with nerdytec's COUCHMASTER and ROCCAT's Gaming Peripherals

LOS ANGELES, CA – STEIGER DYNAMICS, award-winning manufacturer of custom Gaming Home Theater PCs, completes the living room PC gaming experience with nerdytec's COUCHMASTER® and ROCCAT's gaming mice, mouse pads, and keyboards.

STEIGER DYNAMICS partners up with COUCHMASTER® fabricator nerdytec and gaming peripheral manufacturer ROCCAT to maximize the living room gaming experience for the high-end gamer and HTPC enthusiast, offering for sale select products from both companies in STEIGER DYNAMICS's web shop.

nerdytec's COUCHMASTER® brings the desktop PC experience to your living room with a comfortable platform for mouse and keyboard. Paired with a USB 3.0 hub for up to 4 USB devices and a 15 (5m) or 30ft (10m) USB extension cable, the user can maintain a wired system setup for minimum input lag. STEIGER DYNAMICS will carry the all black synthetic leather COUCHMASTER® for USD 228 and will be the exclusive distributor of the real leather version offering premium touch and feel at a price of USD 298.

German engineered and designed ROCCAT gaming peripherals are regarded as the very best and highest quality products in the gaming mouse and keyboard market. Their equipment is the preference of choice of many of today's pro gamers and PC enthusiasts, giving users that extra advantage needed to take their gaming to the next level. STEIGER DYNAMICS will offer the following ROCCAT products in its web shop:

- ROCCAT™ Kone XTD – Max Customization Gaming Mouse, USD 99
- ROCCAT™ Kone Pure – Core Performance Gaming Mouse, USD 79
- ROCCAT™ Hiro – 3D Supremacy Soft Surface Gaming Mousepad, USD 49
- ROCCAT™ Alumic – Double-Sided Hard Surface Gaming Mousepad, USD 39
- ROCCAT™ Isku FX – Multicolor Illuminated Gaming Keyboard, USD 109
- ROCCAT™ Isku – Illuminated Gaming Keyboard, USD 99

By using the nerdytec Couchmaster in combination with ROCCAT gaming peripherals, gamers can finally experience a wired pro gaming setup in the comfort of the living room's couch.

“We absolutely love using the COUCHMASTER® with ROCCAT peripherals in our own test lab setup,” said Martin Gossner, CTO and Co-founder of STEIGER DYNAMICS. “The Couchmaster perfectly simulates the ergonomic arm and hand positioning of a desk, and it is actually far more comfortable than sitting at the desk! But that’s not all. As a former semi-professional Counterstrike player I care about my gaming performance as much as the comfort. ROCCAT’s Kone XTD mouse and Isku FX keyboard are the best gaming peripherals I have ever got my hands on. We are very excited about the partnerships with nerdytec and ROCCAT, and we highly recommend their products to anyone who seeks to maximize their living room PC gaming experience.”
